EXPLANATORY NOTE

The purpose of this Amendment No. 1 (this “Amendment”) to the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of Artelo Biosciences, Inc. (the “Company”) for the period ended June 30, 2026 (the “Original Report”), as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on August 12, 2026, is solely to amend Part II “Item 1. Legal Proceedings” to include information regarding an arbitration claim that was inadvertently omitted from the Original Report.

In addition, as required by Rule 12b-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, new certifications of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer are filed as exhibits to this Amendment under Part II “Item 6. Exhibits”.

Except as described above, this Amendment makes no other changes to the Original Report. This Amendment does not reflect subsequent events occurring after the original filing of the Original Report or modify or update in any way those disclosures that may be affected by subsequent events. Accordingly, this Amendment should be read in conjunction with the Original Report and our other filings with the SEC.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

From time to time, we may be involved in various claims and legal proceedings relating to claims arising out of our operations. As previously reported in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on May 27, 2026, on April 7, 2026, Craft Capital Management LLC (“Craft”) filed a FINRA arbitration claim against the Company seeking compensatory damages, equitable relief, attorneys’ fees and all other appropriate relief for, among other things, the Company’s alleged breach of the right of first refusal provision in the engagement letter agreement, dated March 16, 2026 (the “Engagement Letter”), between the Company and Craft, arising from the Company’s termination of the Engagement Letter on March 27, 2026, and subsequent closing of a private placement offering on March 30, 2026 for gross proceeds of approximately $11 million (the “Transaction”). Craft is seeking an $880,000 success fee, common stock warrants valued at $880,000, and monthly late fees in connection with the Transaction, in addition to reasonable attorneys’ fees, interest, and other such appropriate relief. On July 7, 2026, we submitted counterclaims against Craft for fraudulent inducement, breach of contract, violation of regulatory rules, and declaratory relief. This arbitration claim process is ongoing. Management does not believe that the ultimate resolution of this matter will have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements. Regardless of outcome, litigation can have an adverse impact on us because of defense and settlement costs, diversion of management resources and other factors.

I, Gregory D. Gorgas, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of Artelo Biosciences, Inc.;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer(s) and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
 - (a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
 - (b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - (c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - (d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer(s) and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - (a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
 - (b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
